

Scholarship Application

Frank W. Moore Scholarship

The Indiana Funeral Directors Association awards this scholarship in memory of Frank W. Moore to recognize the understanding of, and dedication to, the philosophy and standards of funeral service to a deserving mortuary science student. Selection is done by a committee of the Indiana Funeral Education Foundation. The scholarship is in the amount of $ 1000.

Selection Criteria:

The applicant must (1) be attending an accredited funeral service education program; (2) be a student/intern member of IFDA; (3) submit a letter of recommendation from a practicing funeral director (non-family member) and from a member of the funeral service school or department faculty; (4) submit the essay outlined below; (5) show they intend to serve their internship in the state of Indiana; (6) complete and submit the Scholarship Application form; and (7) submit their current college transcript.

Essays: (Must be typewritten.)

Write an essay telling us about yourself. You might want to include information about how you chose funeral service as a career, your career and life goals, and any early experiences you had in funeral service. Be sure to include information about your intent to serve your internship in the state of Indiana.

Applications:

Applications must be submitted by deadline (check with IFDA for date).
All requested materials must accompany application.
Mail completed application to address below.
Do not submit additional; material such as photos or resumes.
Materials submitted will not be returned.
Winner will be notified by mail. Scholarships will be formally announced and awarded at the IFDA convention.
Payment of the scholarship will be made directly to the school.

Indiana Funeral Directors Association
Attn: Frank W. Moore Award Committee
1305 W. 96th St. Suite A
Indianapolis, IN 46260